IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

When the dimpled baby's hungry, what does the baby do? It doesn't lie serenely and merely sweetly coo; The hungry baby bellows with all its little might Till some one gives it something to curb its appetite. The infant with the bottle which stills its fretful cries A lesson plainly teaches—it pays to advertise.

RANDALL'S SECRETARY NEWS-PAPER MAN

Congressman-elect Chas. H. Randall has announced the appointment of Editor Percy F. Adelsbach of the Watts Advertiser as his secretary. The appointment will be effective on March 4th, when the new congressman's term begins.

In his selection of a secretary Mr. Randall has given recognition to his own profession, for both he and his secretary are members of the Los Angeles County Press association, and of the Southern California Editorial association.

Mr. Adelsbach has also long been in the front ranks as a fighter against the liquor interests.

DESPERATE BURGLARS AT WORK

Burglars and robbers of a particularly desperate type are operating in the larger cities of California. Most of them, it is evident, are exotics. They have come here from afar, for exposition year. They do not scruple to murder, if caught in a tight place. Several murderous crimes already have been committed since the beginning of the season of heavier travel hitherward from the East. The lesson to householders is—be cautious. When leaving the house, or at night, lock doors and fasten windows securely. Better still, do not keep valuable jewelry or much money about the house to tempt cupidity and invite criminality. It is well to keep premises lighted up at night. A good watchdog about the place is a valuable protector, usually. As this threatens to be a particularly trying winter in the matter of robbery menace all over California, it behooves everyone to exercise extraordinary care not to lay temptation before desperate criminals or facilitate their work by carelessness with valuables.

ONE WAY TO PROSPERITY

No city or town in this state, or any other place for that matter, can expect to thrive and prosper without the concentrated effort of its citizens and the judicious expenditure of money. The towns in our state today that are prosperous are the ones that have donated liberally to enterprises which employ labor. Thus it is and always will be that the liberal and broad-gauged town will thrive while the tight-fisted ones are struggling for the necessities of life.—Exchange.

GET READY FOR 1915

If you have not already done so, arrange now to plant California poppy seed, which can be placed in most any convenient spot in the doorway or in the parking in front of the residence, where the flowers would show to good advantage. Vacant lots could be utilized, too, and in place of weeds and rubbish, a little labor now would make these otherwise untidy looking spots look very pretty, next spring, after the winter rains, and one would scarcely know the poppies were not of the wild variety and had sprang up naturally, as they do in some portions of the valley every season.

There are many parkings about the city where poppies could be planted, as well as many vacant lots.

REAL GETTING TOGETHER

In the schoolhouse at Belleville, Wisconsin, a few evenings ago, upon motion of the Catholic priest, the Methodist minister was elected president of the community's social center for the coming winter.

Then three basketball teams were formed, including the priest, the minister, the blacksmith, the editor, a farmer, the keeper of the village restaurant, a dentist, a clothier, a teamster, a druggist, a garage owner, the banker, the saloon-keeper, a hardware merchant and a house painter.

They differed in religion, in politics, in incomes, in social status, about as widely as men can differ. But in the common school building, in the free democracy of the social center, they agreed to lay aside their differences for the novel purpose of discovering how much good fellowship there was in meeting together, now and then, as equals, as brothers.

In the democracy of play, in the democracy of frank, fair discussion of public questions, they are finding out, these differing men of Belleville, that, as human beings, they're amazingly alike, once you get below the surface.

And out of this agreeable discovery will come, for Belleville, more tolerance, more kindness of feeling, more give and take, than it had ever known before. Even when they shall differ again—as, of course, they often will—it won't be with as much bitterness, as much bigotry, as much mean hate, as of yore. It's a wonderful solvent, is brotherhood.—Stockton Record.

Announcements

NOTICE TO CITIZENS

The board of trustees of the city of Glendale has instructed T. W. Watson, city manager, to prepare a floral float to be used in the parade at the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena on New Year's day. Any citizens having flowers to donate for the purpose of decorating the float should call the city manager's office—Sunset 714, Home 1254. Glendale citizens are invited to suitably decorate their automobiles and join the Glendale section in the parade.

The Retired Ministers' association of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet in the First Church of Los Angeles on January 13th. There will be a business session at 10:30, dinner at 12:00 in the church dining-room, an old-time love feast at 1:30, followed by a sermon by Dr. T. B. Hughes of Pasadena, father of Matt S. Hughes and Bishop Hughes. This will be followed by the sacrament of the Lord's supper.

C. R. NORTON, Secy.

NEW YEAR'S EVE SERVICE

First Methodist Episcopal church, corner Third street and Dayton court. From their earliest history, the people called Methodists have observed New Year's eve as time to come together and talk over the work of the year and close the year upon their knees before God in supplication that they may more worthily serve him in the year to come. The above church will observe the evening as follows:

8 to 9 o'clock—Ladies' Aid will have charge and the following program will be rendered:
Piano duet, Mrs. Paul Butterfield and Miss Marion Henry.
Reading, Mrs. Knox.
Solo, Mrs. Cammack.
Reading, Mrs. Genevieve Goss.
Cello solo, Dana Burkett.
Piano solo, Harriet Cammack.
Male quartet—C. D. Lusby, Dr. Lusby, Ralph Lusby and Paul Butterfield.
Reading, Miss Helen Wright.
Solo, Mrs. Cammack.
9 to 10 o'clock—Social hour. The Ladies' Aid will have charge in the main building. The Epworth League will be in charge in the social hall. A good time for everyone, young and old.

10 to 10:45—Refreshments.
10:45 to 11:15—Love feast, another old-fashioned Methodist custom.
11:15 to 12—Sermon by pastor, followed by consecration service. All members urged to attend and all friends will find a hearty welcome and a most interesting service.

PASADENA MAY RUN MUNICIPAL BUS LINE

Thoroughly believing in municipal ownership of public utilities, Professor A. H. Sayre, principal of Grant school, called on the city commissioners this morning to talk over the establishment of a municipally owned autobus line. Mr. Sayre feels that the autobus is here to stay and he feels that it is the best system for local traffic. But he is inclined to the opinion that the system should be carried on by the municipality, rather than by private individuals. If there is any money to be made out of this system of transportation, he thinks the city should get it rather than private individuals.

It is Mr. Sayre's belief that, to put it in the language of the man in the street, the city should get in on the ground floor. His study of municipal ownership has shown him that it is costly for cities to buy out public utilities and that when cities set up rival plants to already established plants, they seldom entirely get rid of competition.

The present bus system is not considered ideal. As is but natural, drivers cling to the routes which offer the most traffic. Under a municipal system Mr. Sayre says bus lines could be established on streets not already served to any degree, such as Hill, El Molino and other thoroughfares. Under a municipal system, too, transfers could be provided and the busses instead of being small automobiles could be of such a size as to hold, say, twenty persons.

Commissioner of Public Safety W. B. Loughery, with whom Mr. Sayre discussed the matter more fully than with any other commissioner, did not wish to commit himself to any opinion on the subject. "It is a new thing to me; I have not had time to consider it," he remarked.

Chairman R. L. Metcalf was more outspoken, and did not hesitate to say that he does not think it wise at this time for the city to go in for a municipally-owned autobus system in Pasadena. In the first place he does not think it would make money for the city. He does not believe the majority of the drivers now running busses are making it pay.

"If we had no railway here, no street car system, and were going to put in a traffic system, then we might put in busses which could carry a dozen people and save putting down car tracks. But we have a street car system here and the company has its franchises and is likely to stay at least until those franchises are up. I do not think the time will come very soon when we can get along without street cars."—Pasadena Star.

Pessimism is the fog of life. Optimism is its sunshine.

THE WORLD CONFLICT

"Out of common interests would arise a civilization as sweet and congenial in spirit as that of the Nazarene."

"Companionship, love for neighbor, security of comfort, national and international brotherhood, peace and good will, the world as our country, with a world architecture, music and art; a world knowledge, a world industry and commerce, all mingling in mutual help; a civilization 'the heights of which no one can conceive. Hitherto we have taken the road that leads to depths. We have landed at the bottom. Witness the millions of the dead, the wounded, and the starving!"

"Let us start anew. Let us relay our foundation. Let our interests be common and we will ascend to the heights where living will become a joy to all, and the good in man will bear fruit."

LOS ANGELES COUNTY DAY AT SAN DIEGO

Los Angeles county day at the Panama-California exposition will be January 9. Inasmuch as it will be one of the first big days of the fair, it is expected there will be a record-breaking attendance. The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce will have charge of the excursion. A special train will be secured from the Santa Fe. The round-trip price of $5 will include a luncheon at the Southern California building. Moderate rates will be given by hotels.

The Southern California building bids fair to be one of the best patronized at the exposition and Los Angeles county day is on one of the earliest available dates. Those who have taken a preliminary peep at the fair say that the view of the grounds alone is worth the silver half dollar one pays for admission. To go with a crowd of genial people and to be able to get at least a superficial idea of the glories of the exposition can be obtained by enrolling as a Los Angeles county day booster and reserving a ticket from Secretary Frank Wiggins of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Numerous inquiries have been received, and it is believed that there will be no difficulty in getting a full quota of excursionists. Anyone who has ever been on a Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce excursion knows that every effort is made to provide a good time, free from worry, and that the distinction of being in such good company is alone "worth the price of admission."

"The exhibit of Southern California products is the best thing on the grounds," said Secretary Wiggins. "Los Angeles county day ought to be well patronized. I have just come from San Diego and took a trip out to the grounds. They are beautiful and the Southern California building houses some remarkable exhibits. I have never seen anything like it."

The building will attract attention from the eastern visitors, for under the experienced general management of Charles Wilson, a veteran exhibitor, the display has eclipsed anything heretofore shown at any international exposition.

PERSONALS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Davis of Lincoln place, December 24, a baby girl.

Miss Minnie Moore of West Fifth street is suffering from a serious nervous disease.

Miss Ethel Read, 401 North Central avenue, is suffering from nervous prostration at her home.

Miss Ellen McCants of Santa Barbara was a holiday guest of Miss Edna Learned at 137 South Maryland avenue.

Mr. C. H. Anderson and Mrs. M. H. Vance and son of Oakland are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyatt of 1634 West Broadway.

Mr. E. U. Emery of 117 South Kenwood street is in San Diego on business and will not return home until after New Year's.

Mrs. Oliver O. Clark of 100 South Louise street will entertain Mrs. Walter F. Fisher and daughter of Los Angeles at luncheon on Thursday.

Mrs. C. R. Norton of 373 West Third street spent the Christmas time with her daughter, Mrs. Alma Hilyard of Los Angeles, and had a very delightful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Evans and baby of 808 West Fifth street spent Christmas day in Highland Park at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Baker of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McCants of Santa Barbara returned to their home Sunday evening after spending the holidays with Mrs. McCants' parents at 137 South Maryland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rockhold and children have returned from Riverside, where they have been spending a few days, having left here the day before Christmas.

Miss Ruby Dale of 1307 1/2 Hawthorne street will entertain her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Adams, and two sons, Guy and Will Adams, of Kansas City, on New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Baker, from Neche, North Dakota, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Asa V. Fannett of 133 North Louise street, and it is hoped that Mr. and Mrs. Baker will finally decide to make Glendale their home.

On Christmas eve Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Field of 239 South Kenwood street entertained a number of their friends with a tree and dinner party. Covers were laid for seven and after dinner games and music were enjoyed by all.

Sunday was such a beautiful day for a ride that a party consisting of Mrs. George Allen and son Homer and daughter Genevieve, with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Case and Miss Grace Case, motored up to the Case cabin in Arroyo Seco canyon and spent a most delightful day in the open.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Davis and family of 515 Orange Grove avenue spent Christmas day in Hollywood with Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Paul. In the evening there was a party at Mr. and Mrs. Paul's home, which was given as a surprise on Miss Rae Davis, and at which the young folks enjoyed themselves hugely.

A number of parties are being planned in honor of Miss Ruth Brown and Miss Alpha Clement, who are home for the holidays and who will return to school immediately after the new year. Christmas week seems to be the shortest week in the whole year, and not half long enough to do all the things people want to do.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDougall of 1305 Burchett street had a very large tree at their house in honor of their very small girl, who is however able to appreciate pretty things as well as her elders. At any rate, the rest of the people present enjoyed the day immensely, and did full justice to the excellent dinner, as well as to the Christmas tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver O. Clark of 100 South Louise street entertained a merry party at their cabin on Mt. Baldy on Christmas day. There was snow and regular Christmas weather and a very happy day was spent by all. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Clark, there was Mrs. Clark's aunt, Mrs. Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. Griest of Los Angeles and Miss Scarborough in the party.

MANY DUCKS BAGGED

Last Saturday afternoon Robert Walton and a party of friends consisting of J. Frank Walters, J. W. M. Burton, C. D. Shattuck, William Deerr and Robert Bailey, departed via Mint canyon for Elizabeth lake, with the avowed intention of bringing back the limit of ducks.

Sunday morning they found several inches of snow at the lake, a high wind and some thirty other hunters already there. Yet by night the local party had succeeded in bagging fifty-five ducks, which they brought home with them on Monday night.

The return trip was made via Bouquet canyon and the party report some beautiful scenery and lots of mistletoe (but no girls).

LIVING IN CALIFORNIA

California may have some drawbacks, but the moderate climate of the winters overbalances all the hindrances.

GERMAN AIRSHIP DESTROYED

LONDON, Dec. 29, 3:45 a.m.—The Times declares that there is excellent reason, despite German denials, for believing that a Parseval shed and airship were destroyed in the British raid on Cuxhaven. It adds that serious damage also was inflicted on the Zeppelin sheds.

LONDON, Dec. 28.—A violent storm has temporarily stopped military operations along most of the battle front in Belgium and France. In this territory the positions of the opposing forces remain virtually the same as they have been for weeks past.

In the eastern arena the official reports indicate a similar condition so far as progress by either side is concerned. Petrograd reports, however, that between the Pilica river and the upper Vistula the Germans are now on the defensive.

The Russians also report the capture of more than 20,000 prisoners, to which reference was made in previous announcements.

A Petrograd dispatch by way of London says that all the important passes on the Carpathians are again in Russian hands.

The British government through the naval and military authorities, apparently fearing a raid over British towns by German airships, has issued a warning to take cover should the sound of firing be heard.

LONDON, Dec. 28, 11 p.m.—The battle lines in the east and the west have undergone only infinitesimal changes in the last day. The French and the German reports agree that the Germans have captured a section of the trenches near Hollebeke, south of Ypres.

The French assert that the Germans gave up trenches on the first line to the extent of about 800 or 900 yards in the Lens region, farther east, while unsuccessful demonstrations have been made from both sides at various points along the extended lines.

The reports of the numbers of wounded both armies are sending back from the lines in Belgium appear to show that the fighting on Christmas in that country was the fiercest of the last month. Correspondents in the rear say the Belgians, as a result of five days' sapping, captured nearly 3000 Germans with only small losses to themselves.

According to the Russian reports, the German attempts to capture Warsaw have failed, while the Berlin official statement says there is general confidence that the German and Austro-Hungarian forces are making progress along the great front.

English newspapers are enthusiastic over the raid by their cruisers and seaplanes on Cuxhaven. They decline to accept without reservation the German statement that ships at Cuxhaven and the gas works were hit by bombs, but that no damage was done, and consider this improbable.

The naval writers dilate and speculate lavishly upon "the most remarkable engagement of twentieth century warfare." They conclude that the German ships feared to come forth and give battle to the British cruisers because of the uncertainty as to whether the British battleships were lurking behind them.

The fact that the Zeppelins were driven off is taken by some as evidence that the Zeppelins are really untrustworthy craft. Others think it means that the Germans are hush-banding all their dirigibles for a grand raid on England.

It is argued by some of the writers that if Cuxhaven can thus be attacked, why not Heligoland, Wilhelmshaven and even the Kiel canal.

The only damage the British expedition sustained was the loss of several hydroplanes, costing $45,000, while Commander Hewlett was the only person who lost his life.

The British people are beginning to lose whatever fear of the Zeppelin they had, but the exploits of the airmen on the continent and the scouting trip of the German flyer over Kent on Christmas cause the people to feel that there is a strong possibility that the Taubes may repeat over London the visit with bombs which they paid over Paris and Warsaw.

The authorities issued a warning

tonight of the danger to people in the streets from guns which may be used in London against hostile aircraft, and advised the people to take refuge in basements if they should hear the sound of explosives or guns. A heavy windstorm with rain and snow swept over parts of England and adjacent waters tonight, and there must be suffering for the sailors on duty on the smaller craft off the coasts.

Mrs. Frank I. Marsh celebrated the eighteenth anniversary of Eugene H. Imbler with a dinner party at her home on Central avenue Monday evening. Covers were laid for six.

Mr. L. C. Rice, who has been visiting his ranch near Lindsay, has returned to his home on South Central avenue for a few days' visit.

RELATIVES AND FRIENDS DINED

On Christmas day, 1914, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Adams of 1450 Ivy street entertained their relatives and friends to a Christmas dinner. The house was beautifully and artistically decorated with the Christmas colors (red and green), interspersed with Christmas bells of various sizes, and placed around the rooms were souvenirs of Australia, which were recently brought by Miss Mary Learned, which were presented to the different families. Among them were fans of various form and size made from native grasses; a Samoa island "native costume," which was made of coconut fiber; a cane made of raspberry wood, so named because the wood when freshly cut smells similar to ripe raspberries; the wood takes a beautiful polish and resembles mahogany in color; also a book of Australian views.

Plates were laid for twenty-eight, all being present. They sat around the table loaded with a feast of good things to eat, and the way the turkey and "fixings" disappeared was sufficient evidence that the culinary art of the hostess was enjoyed by all present, including Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Learned, Miss Lovisa V. Learned, Mr. W. D. Learned and daughter Ethel. Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Learned, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Learned, Willard and Edith Learned, Miss Emma Adams, Miss Edna Learned, Miss Mary Learned and L. L. Wilson, all of Glendale, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Adams and daughter Marion of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Adams and daughter Flora of Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson of St. Cloud, Minn., Miss Ellen McCants and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McCants of Santa Barbara, and the host and hostess.

A telegram containing Christmas greetings was received from their son Everett Adams and family of New York, who could not be present.

The Minnesota guests not being accustomed to seeing fresh strawberries served at Christmas time, were amazed at their size and took a measure of some of the berries which was more than five inches in circumference. The afternoon was spent in social chat and a merry good time was had by all.

After a snapshot was taken of the gathering and everyone had registered in the guest book, the merry crowd dispersed to their homes, wishing the host and hostess many returns of the happy day.

WOMAN'S EMANCIPATION

There is not a woman anywhere to-day who would be without a

Western Electric Washer and Wringer

If she only knew the freedom from the wash-day drudgery it would bring to her.

We want you to come to-day and see this new machine—we want you to examine it—we want you to scrutinize every detail, inside and outside.

You will find it an innovation.

You simply put in the clothes and start the motor and in 10 to 15 minutes the clothes are washed beautifully white and clean with not a thread of the finest laces broken.

The clothes will last six times longer than when rubbed on the board. The heaviest woolen blankets, finest lace curtains, daintiest laces and lingerie are all the same on a Western Electric. It washes them perfectly and without the slightest injury.

Connect to any electric lamp socket.

We will send it to your home for 15 days' free trial.
